

KIPZ Objector Meetings Objectives and Agenda

Meeting Outcomes

- 1) Attendees (objectors, interested parties, the public, and Forest staff) understand the planning and review processes, how the review was conducted, the status of the review process, and how the information from the meeting will be used in the final decision.
- 2) Attendees are aware of the collective range of issues brought forward.
- 3) Attendees have had the chance (through spokespersons) to validate or clarify the Reviewing Officer's understanding of the objection topics on today's agenda.
- 4) Attendees have identified topic areas where they are willing to convene with other stakeholders to develop and provide coordinated recommendations to the Forest Service.
